

Myers-Briggs & Effective Communication

Presented by Wisnik Career Enterprises, Inc.

Participants will learn how their communication style is perceived by others. They will also learn to communicate effectively with people whose styles are different than their own.

During this interactive workshop participants will:

- Receive the results of their Myers-Briggs type and a clear understanding of their unique way of communicating, taking in information, making decisions and responding to others
- Gain an overview of what the instrument measures and its application
- Develop hands-on experience watching how other people process information, make decisions and communicate
- Master clues to help decipher how to communicate effectively with others
- Establish a list of key words to use when working with different types of people that ensure good communication occurs
- Develop ideas for communicating effectively with clients, staff and other lawyers
