

Myers-Briggs & Effective Communication

Eva Wisnik, President

Eva Wisnik is the former Director of Recruitment and Training for Schulte Roth & Zabel and Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft. After 10 years as a recruitment professional, Eva founded a training and placement firm for the legal community. Since starting her business in 1996, she has conducted more than 600 training programs for law firms nationwide, including 74 of the AmLaw100 firms.

Participants will learn how their communication style is perceived by others. They will also learn to communicate effectively with people whose styles are different than their own.

During this interactive workshop participants will:

- ✓ Receive the results of their Myers-Briggs type and a clear understanding of their unique way of communicating, taking in information, making decisions and responding to others;
- ✓ Gain insight into the most common lawyer work styles and how to work effectively with them;
- ✓ Learn specific strategies for communicating and working with colleagues whose styles are very different from their own;
- ✓ Hands-on experience watching how others process information, make decisions and communicate;
- ✓ List of key words to use when working with different types of people that ensure good communication occurs;
- ✓ Resources to further understand Type & to enhance communication skills.

