

Maintaining Your Well-Being During Challenging Times: Rituals, Habits and Tips

You will leave this program with specific tools and strategies for managing your well-being daily. Eva will share 10 rituals, habits and tips for you to choose from so you can manage stress and focus on things that will help you feel more in control, positive and grateful.

This workshop will provide you with:

- Specific ideas for creating a morning and evening ritual that will help you to start and end each day right.
- Ways to train your mind to find all the good stuff that is there already, even in challenging times.
- An understanding of your primary needs and how they drive you.
- Specific actions you can take to feel more in control in uncertain times.
- Insight into how scarcity, fear and competition affect your life.
- Self-care habits to fuel yourself so that you can manage your state more effectively.
- Four primary “foods” to keep yourself energized and “well-fed.”
- Ideas to keep yourself positive and grateful.
