

TEAM BUILDING FOR BUSINESS SERVICES PROFESSIONALS

This 90-minute virtual or in person workshop will provide tools to better understand each other's communication styles, stay motivated, and work collaboratively. The work values exercise will provide them with a sense of belonging. This "glue" is particularly valuable for new team members and in our hybrid work environment.

During this workshop participants will:

- Receive the results of their Myers-Briggs type and a clear understanding of their unique way of communication, making decisions and responding to others;
- Learn specific strategies for communicating and working with colleagues whose styles are different from their own;
- Engage in a team-building and shared values exercise;
- Gain tools and insights that will help build trust-filled relationships and foster a collaborative work environment;
- Identify well-being practices to keep themselves energized and engaged throughout the busy season.
